

Astrid U. Galindo is an associate at Manulkin, Tanner, & Associates. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Interdisciplinary Studies, with a Labor Studies Minor, from California State Dominguez Hills. Mrs. Galindo earned her Juris Doctorate from Whittier Law School. She is licensed to practice law in California. Mrs. Galindo was a Deputy District Attorney for Los Angeles County, specializing in child abuse, domestic violence, and assault cases, for several years prior to joining our firm. Mrs. Galindo has volunteered with Catholic Charities of Santa Ana and Christian Legal Aid of Los Angeles. Mrs. Galindo has worked for our firm since 2012. Her extensive experience with victims, witnesses, and clients makes her an asset to our firm. Emily Neubert is the primary trial attorney at Manulkin, Tanner, & Associates. Ms. Neubert received her undergraduate degree with Magna Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa honors from San Diego State University. Afterwards, she obtained her law degree from Florida State University. While in law school, Ms. Neubert worked for the renowned Public Interest Law Center advocating for low income individuals and victims of domestic violence in family law matters. Ms. Neubert is a Southern California native, and is admitted to practice law by the State Bar of California. Ms. Neubert joined our firm in 2012. Ms. Neubert's talent for litigation is a benefit to the clients of Manulkin, Tanner, & Associates.