

There are more than fifty Immigration Courts in the United States in which more than 200 judges adjudicate immigration matters. Our office specializes in assisting immigrants defend their right to remain in the United States. Our highly knowledgeable attorneys will represent you at every stage to successfully obtain your right to live in the United States lawfully. An Immigration Judge decision is final unless timely appealed to the Board of Immigration Appeals or successfully reopened.