

Our office has been especially successful in seeking reopening of prior deportation or removal orders considered final by the Immigration Court and Board of Immigration Appeals. Success in reopening will allow you the opportunity to have your applications for relief heard before the Immigration Court with proper legal representation.